

UN MARKINGS FOR AN OPEN HEAD STEEL DRUM FOR SOLIDS

SKOLNIK

INDUSTRIES, INC.

The UN Symbol

The lower case “un” in the circle indicates that the package has been UN tested and certified per CFR-178.600. The UN symbol is required however, the letters “UN” in upper case, may be applied in place of the symbol for the bottom embossment of metal packaging.

CFR 178.503(a)(1)

Packaging Identification Codes

Indicates the type of packaging, the material of construction and the subcategory within the type of packaging.
 Type of Container 1=Drum Material of Construction A=Steel Category within Type2=Open Head

CFR 178.503(a)(2)

Packaging Group for which the Container was Tested

X - Packaging Group I, II, III Packaging Group I: Great Danger — High Hazard Level
 Y - Packaging Group II, III Packaging Group II: Medium Danger — Medium Hazard Level
 Z - Packaging Group III Packaging Group III: Minor Danger — Low Hazard Level

CFR 178.503(a)(3)

Mass of Material

Maximum gross mass (kilograms) that the package can weigh when filled (packaging plus contents)

CFR 178.503(a)(4)

An upper case “S” to indicate Solids

CFR 178.503(a)(5)

Year of Manufacture

Last 2 Digits of Year of Manufacture

CFR 178.503(a)(6)

Country of Manufacture

Required only on the durable side label.

CFR 178.503(a)(7)

Manufacturer or Approval Code

SDCC is Skolnik’s DOT Registered Manufacturer’s Code.

CFR 178.503(a)(8)

Metal Thickness

Top, Bottom, Body (metric) If 100+ liters, required only on the bottom embossment.

CFR 178.503(a)(9)

Skolnik Identifier